

DUNKLIN COUNTY TRANSIT PASSENGER BEHAVIOR POLICY

The following rules/guidelines are expected to be followed by all passengers to ensure that everyone has a safe and enjoyable ride.

- All riders are required to wear seat belt.
- There will be no smoking or tobacco use on the vehicles or around the vehicle with the doors open.
- No weapons are allowed on the vehicle.
- No sexual contact or discussion.
- Vulgar language and/or violent/unruly behavior will not be tolerated.
- No discussion of religion or politics.
- All children must be accompanied by an adult and if your child is in need of a car seat/booster seat, etc. you must provide one in order for them to ride.
- There can be no obstructing or interfering with the drivers safe operation of the vehicle.
- No fighting, arguing, harassing or any other disruptive behavior with any other passenger or Dunklin County Transit driver or office staff.
- Riders must remain seated until the vehicle comes to a complete stop.

Any violation of any of the above listed rules/guidelines or any other action that may pose a threat or harm to the individual, driver or any other passenger of Dunklin County Transit may result in suspension or termination of services.

This policy was approved at the Dunklin County Transit Advisory Board on February 24, 2015.